

Collaboration: What The Heck Is It?

Eugene Eric Kim <EEKIM@blueoxen.org>

Portals, Collaboration, and Content Management Conference

Scottsdale, Arizona

April 12, 2005

Collaboration?

Effective Collaboration?

Definition

collaboration:

Two or more people interacting and exchanging knowledge in pursuit of a shared, collective, bounded goal.

Observations

- Collaboration is tied to a concrete goal, hence tools and metrics are often goal-specific.
- We want to be at least as good as the sum of our parts, and at most, much, much better.
- Tools should help facilitate patterns of collaboration.

Patterns

Pattern

Watering Hole

Shared Display

Visible Team

Examples

Sourceforge.net

whiteboard; pair programming

instant messaging

Emergent Collaboration

